Think On This...

Red Skelton had a monologue concerning the Pledge of Allegiance that I encourage each one of you to look up and listen to. In it, he breaks down each phrase of the pledge line by line, showing how this country is unique among all other countries. Today we have much division among the citizens of our country as to such things as boarders, immigration, foreign policy health care and the like. I'm not writing this article to solve those problems, nor to offer my political opinion on them. I am writing his article to point out several things:

1. The freedoms this country offers are from the Bible
2. The first duty of a country is to protect its citizens
3. Freedom is never free; it costs everybody something and others their all
4. If we try to be uniformed in our beliefs, we will never be unified in action.
5. Yesterday we celebrated 250 years as a nation. For 250 years this country, imperfect as it is, has been the destination for so many seeking freedom and opportunity. For 2000 years the church of the living God has proclaimed liberty and freedom in the name of Jesus Christ. As imperfect as we are, we still hold up the perfect Lamb of God. As Christians we are ultimately citizens of Heaven above all else. But, for a moment, without giving a nod to the ungodliness in this country, let's be proud we have been afforded the freedom of religion and the freedom of speech which has allowed us the liberty to preach Christ and Him crucified to all who will listen.

As a United States citizen, I stand proud. As a citizen of the Kingdom of God, I stand humbled and in awe of the one who gave His all for me.
