Think On This...

A Sunday School teacher named Mr. Kimball in 1858 led a Boston shoe clerk to give his life to Christ. The clerk, Dwight L. Moody, became an evangelist and in England in 1879 awakened evangelistic zeal in the heart of Fredrick B. Meyer pastor of a small church.

F.B. Meyer, preaching on an American college campus brought a student to Christ named J. Wilbur Chapman. Chapman, engaged in YMCA work, employed a former baseball player named Billy Sunday to do evangelistic work. Sunday held a revival in Charlotte, North Carolina. A group of local men were so enthusiastic afterwards that they planned another campaign, bringing Mordecai Hamm to town to preach.

In the revival, a young man named Billy Graham heard the gospel and yielded his life to Christ.

Billy Graham....

The story goes on....

You never know the impact that you may have when sharing the one hope of your calling with another person. Every soul who turns from hell will be glad you did!
