Think On This…

James tells us:
My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this:
Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. (James 1:19-20)

Quick to listen: get all the facts, even the ones you do not want to hear

Slow to speak: this is our reaction, usually wrought with raw emotions

Slow to become angry: letting our emotions get out of control. Because human anger is usually mixed up with our egos, our hurts, our pain, our wants, our desires, our plans, our, our and more our

It is time, as God's people, to get rid of the "our" and get into the Holy Spirit who will lead us into all truth.
